

Manifest of the TimelineCode Project

This document certifies that the idea, technical concept, and authorship of the TimelineCode project belong to Yuriy Safronov.

Project foundation date: May 30, 2025.

Description:

TimelineCode is a project dedicated to preserving the eternal digital footprint of a person.

It compiles life events, memories, media files, and energy imprints into a structured timeline.

The concept is based on the relativistic energy model and a philosophy of time as a form of memory and energy.

Project domain: <https://timelinecode.com>

This manifest is digitally signed and includes a QR code pointing to the official domain.
